STEEL REPORT ATTACKS ROOSEVELT, INSINUATES 1907 PANIC WAS A FAKE

Queer That the Tennessee
Coal and Iron Deal Was Only Thing Could Halt It.

DOINGS OF T. R. BARED.

Morgan Also Lashed and Iniquities of Trust Told by Stanley Committee.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—Ex-President Theodore Roosevelt and J. Pierpont Morgan are special marks of attack in the report of the majority of the committee of the House of Representatives directed more than a year ago to investigate the United States Steel Corporation, which was submitted to the House today by Representative Stanley of Kentucky, chairman of the committee.

The insinuation is made that the great financial panic of 1907 was a fake, engineered for the benefit of the Steel Trust, and that the scheme was made possible by Col. Roosevelt.

The report deals with the Steel Trust from its inception, and describes the various steps by which J. P. Morgan and his associates built up the corporation. In addition to recommendations for legislation suggested as remedial, the Democratic members of the committee made general accusations against the men responsible for the organization, and are severe with Mr. Roosevelt.

Ex-President Roosevelt is indicted for making the control of the Steel Trust absolute and is charged with being responsible for the gigantic scheme which the trust has attained.

GREAT PANIC OF 1907 A FAKE, IS INSINUATION.

The part that United States Steel, the absorption of the Tennessee Coal and Iron Railroad Company, President Roosevelt and Wall Street financiers played in the panic of 1907 are covered in the insinuation. It is made that the panic was an artificial one designed for the benefit of the Steel Corporation. In its comment the committee says:

"How a panic which had previously resisted the combined efforts of the Federal Government and John D. Rockefeller and J. P. Morgan & Co. and remained in unabated fury after Morgan and Rockefeller had turned loose $50,000,000 and the Federal Treasury $25,000,000 more should suddenly be stilled by this manipulation of Great Steel's loans has not been explained either by Mr. Roosevelt or by any other witness."

"Yet it is urged that the panic was a fake, and that the steel corporation acquired the Tennessee Coal and Iron Company's stock it obtained instantly and permanently."

The committee reports that on Oct. 24, 1907, President Roosevelt issued a

FIRE A MYSTERY; ALL FIFTH AVENUE HUNTED IN VAIN

Firemen Finally Located It in Rear of Old Building
Among Refuge.

Fifth avenue paused in its rush this afternoon to enjoy a mystery, and the solution was not found.

All of a sudden around 2 o'clock engines began converging from four points of the compass upon the avenue between Thirty-eighth and Thirty-ninth street. A water tower trundled up at a gallop, two ladder trucks, whirled around a corner on two wheels, two battalion chiefs and a fire patrol completed the august display of force.

But where was the fire?

Nobody knew. To be sure, the firebox on the Thirty-eighth street corner was open and the dial registered an alarm turned in. But neither Policeman Brown nor Traffic Policeman Claire, a few yards away, had heard the sound of the bell. Everybody ran around in circles, trying to smell out that mysterious fire or to find the equally mysterious stranger who had rung in the alarm.

At last firemen smelled smoke coming from under the crack of a padlocked door on the second floor rear of the building at Nos. 42 and 44. They broke down the door, which hadn't been unlocked since early summer, and found a very small blaze in a pile of paper rubbish in one corner of the vacant room. Two buckets of water doused the fire and the imposing avalanche of fire-fighting apparatus went away.

HOW'D YOU LIKE TO BE IN THE FIX SHERIFF BOB'S IN?

He and His Deputy Come All the Way From New Mexico
After a Fugitive.

AND IT COSTS 'EM $600.

But New York Frees Him on $500—"Now, Asks Bob,
Ain't It Hell?"

Sheriff "Bob" Roberts of McKinley County, New Mexico, and Deputy Sheriff Henry Brock, with the same address on the R. F. D., fled the triggers of their single action guns down to a finer point early today and fared forth upon the trials of Gotham, opining that if they laid eyes on Herman Heinsius, alias Hamberger, they'd wing him at 1,000 yards.

Finding that Heinsius would not accord them the courtesy of being shot, the big sheriff and his big deputy took a train late this afternoon for McKinley County, N. M., vowing they hadn't been treated right and that they couldn't tell how they were going to explain why they spent $600, traveled 3,000 miles and didn't bring back their prisoner. Their opinion of the bias and effete East has had a material decline in the past few days.

Heinsius, a suave talking gentleman, showed up in McKinley County, New Mexico, back in May, representing himself as a salesman for the Mercantile Distribution Company of New York. In such capacity, he induced numerous and sundry thirsty souls to purchase large amounts of whiskey, guaranteed to kill at a thousand yards—the kind that is so popular in McKinley County, New Mexico.

CASHED THE NOTES, DIDN'T
SEND THE RED EYE.

Heinsius, it was charged, condescendingly agreed to accept notes, payable when the whiskey was delivered. The red eye never was delivered, but the notes were discounted in the McKinley County Bank, and so warrants were issued for Mr. Heinsius, charging obtaining money under false pretenses.

Shrewd detectives chased Mr. Heinsius all over the country and finally arrested him in New York, 2,500 miles from McKinley County, New Mexico. The arrest was made on July 10. On July 11 Heinsius was remanded for thirty days, pending the arrival of the requisition papers. McKinley County, New Mexico, immediately was notified and Sheriff "Bob" and Deputy Brock, armed with their faithful shooting irons and legal looking documents ready something about "Know ye all men by these presents, etc.," and duly authorizing them to seize upon and hold the body of said Heinsius, started across the long trails for Gotham.

But a day after they started Lawyer Abraham Levy had Heinsius taken before Justice Mulqueen in Part I, General Sessions, and the jurist fixed bail at $600, which Heinsius's friends put up in cash.

When Sheriff "Bob" and his deputy arrived Heinsius was at liberty, and there was nothing left for them to do but sit around until July 23, the day Heinsius was to have been surrendered by his bondsmen. Sheriff "Bob" and Deputy Brock put up at the Hotel York, in Seventh avenue, and immediately set out to prove that they were good little sticklers around. They know New York like a book and can tell you how to get to Coney Island with least trouble. In fact, they know more about the town than most of our leading citizens. The knowledge cost them $600, but that didn't matter, for McKinley County, New Mexico, was footing the bill—and in a few days they were going to take Heinsius back to the purlieu of Gallup, McKinley County, New Mexico.

BUT HEINSIUS FORGOT HIS APPOINTMENT.

So on July 23—trusting souls—they went to the court house to get their

SENATE PASSES NAVAL BASE BILL; VOTE IS 51 TO 4

Lodge Resolution Broadens
the Monroe Doctrine and Is Warning to Other Nations.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—After a three hours debate behind closed doors, the Senate today, 51 to 4, adopted the Lodge resolution defining the attitude of the United States in disapproving of the acquisition by foreign interests of any territory on the Western Hemisphere which might be used as military or naval bases, or menace "the approaches" of this country.

The resolution broadens the scope of the Monroe doctrine.

The Senators voting against the resolution were Cummins and McPherson, Republican, and Percy and Stone, Democrats.

An amendment offered by Senator McCumber, to take out of the resolution the reference to "corporations or associations which have relations to another government" was defeated.
